DESCRIPTION

Tucked quietly into a private cul-de-sac in The Knolls at Solana, this extraordinary custom residence invites you into a lifestyle where design, innovation, and tranquility exist in perfect harmony. Designed by renowned architect Jon Bolton and set within one of Westlake's most exclusive luxury corridors, this home is as intentional as it is breathtaking. From the moment you step inside, you will notice clean lines, abundant natural lighting, and curated materials creating an elevated sophistication. At the heart of the home, the Eggersmann kitchen—equipped with Gaggenau appliances—serves as both a showpiece and a gathering space. Pedini Italian cabinetry, integrated lighting, and magnetic hidden-frame doors reflect a level of craftsmanship rarely seen. Every element has been designed for effortless living. Savant smart home technology allows you to control lighting, security, audio, climate, and more with ease, while motorized shades, a steam closet, heated floors, and built-in humidifiers elevate everyday comfort into something exceptional. The outdoor atmosphere truly transforms. The backyard feels like a private resort, anchored by a stunning salt water pool, expansive outdoor living areas, and a fully equipped kitchen. Whether hosting under the stars or enjoying a quiet evening by the water, the low-maintenance turfed grounds ensure beauty without compromise. Beyond the home, The Knolls at Solana offers a rare sense of privacy and connection to nature, with 23 acres of preserved landscape, direct access to the Solana Trail, and thoughtfully designed community spaces including parks, dog stations, and a bocce ball court. All of this, just moments from world-class dining, luxury shopping, DFW Airport, and the highly sought-after Westlake Academy. This home offers unmatched features and finishes, crafted for those seeking the finest in modern living with one of Westlake's most coveted addresses.
