DESCRIPTION

Exquisitely renovated, this Caruth Homeplace residence combines timeless architectural design with today's modern finishes in one of Dallas' most desirable communities. Originally designed by Jim Williams and completely reimaged by renowned Park Cities builder Lyle Turner of Malt Homes, the home now showcases Monticello parquet wood floors, quartzite and marble surfaces, and designer hardware for a refined, cohesive look. Tucked away on a quiet cul-de-sac, this lock-and-leave property offers the best of Caruth Homeplace living with private security, a community pool, tennis courts, and clubhouse—all in a central Dallas location. Inside, a bright, eat-in kitchen with Sub-Zero, U-Line and Bosch appliances opens to formal and casual living areas designed for effortless entertaining. Expansive sliding doors connect the oversized family room to the patio, creating seamless indoor-outdoor living. The downstairs primary suite features dual walk-in closets, a spa-like updated bath, and private patio access, while additional guest suites offer flexibility for family, visitors, or a study. Upstairs, a versatile game room or fourth bedroom includes built-ins, a wet bar, and abundant storage. With its extensive updates, natural light, and move-in-ready style, this home stands out as a rare opportunity in coveted Caruth Homeplace.
