DESCRIPTION

222 Bayne Road in Haslet, Texas is a 4.13-acre property with no HOA, fully fenced with gated entry, a 7 car garage, and three completely separate living spaces under one ownership, ideal for multi generational living or income producing assets. Most homes force you to choose between space, location, and flexibility. This one does not. Located on the Alliance side of Haslet, keeping you out of the heavy traffic areas. The main house is 4 bedrooms, 2.5 bathrooms, and 2 fireplaces. The kitchen has an oversized island, double ovens, walk-in pantry, and dual sinks. The primary bedroom on the first floor, includes a fireplace, jetted tub, double vanities, separate shower, and custom closet system. The second floor bedrooms are spacious, with built in features and the fourth bedroom features a walk out balcony for those amazing Texas sunsets. The second structure is a full guest home with vaulted ceilings and beautiful natural wood beams, a stone fireplace, and a complete kitchen. The third is an apartment-style suite with its own kitchen, living area, and bedroom. Both are fully functional as independent residences. This setup is functionally for many different living and investment situations. It works for buyers who want rental income to offset a mortgage. It works for blended families, adult children returning home, or anyone who needs a dedicated workspace or studio separate from the main home. It also works for horse owners as the property allows animals, has room in the shop for horse stalls, includes a private irrigation well and is fully fenced, with pasture. Outside there is an in-ground fiberglass pool, covered outdoor kitchen, fire pit, and a 7 car garage. The property is 2 miles from Highway 287, roughly 13 minutes to Downtown Fort Worth, 30 minutes to Denton, and close to DFW international airport. No HOA. Low Property Taxes.
